

THE FRENCH OPEN

Date: Wednesday 28th May – Sunday 8th June 2008

Venue: Roland Garros, Paris, France

Roger Federer in full flight at the 2007 men's final

In 2007, 20-year-old Spanish phenomenon Rafael Nadal once again in yet another rock solid performance in a Roland Garros final became the first man since the great Bjorn Borg to win three straight crowns when he wore out top-ranked Roger Federer 6-3, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4 in the final.

The French Open 2008 will be just as exhilarating, fresh from his grand slam wins at Wimbledon and the US Open Roger Federer will be looking to take this form into 2008 and avenge his 2007 French Open final loss and end Rafael Nadal's dominance on the red dust....
